

FLOW

Use to visualize how categories are related through the flow rate of a metric.

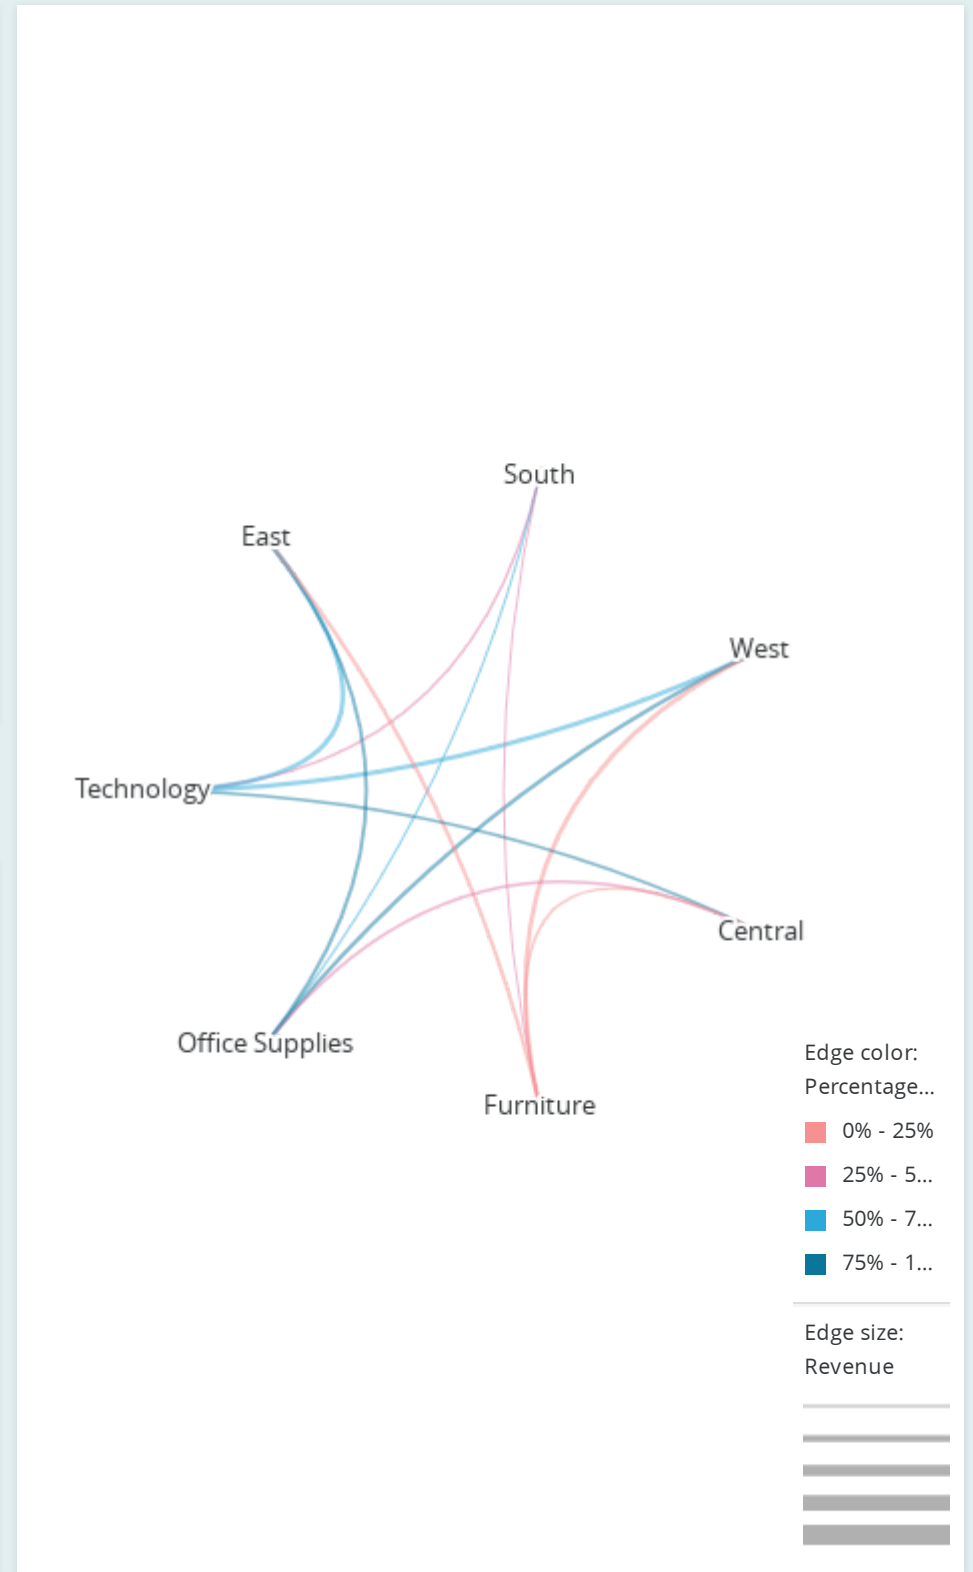

Sankey Diagram

Displays flows between two dimensions where the width of each flow is proportional to the flow rate.

Network

Uses links and nodes to show relationships between data.

Waterfall

Uses bars and colors to show how categories increase or decrease a metric value.

